Farming is the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Underwood and family visited friends on Stony Cseek, Sunday.

Mrs. R. J. Landis continues very sick.

Prayer meeting and Sunday school are progressing nicely.

Rev. H. D. Sloan preached a very interesting sermon at Cummings Creek Chapel Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth Schoolcraft is home for a few days from Fayetteville where he has been employed by a mining Co.

P. W. Underwood attended the community council at Huntersville Wednesday night; he reports a good meeting.

Our school is progressing nicely with Miss Ruby M. Eiland, teacher. Miss Eiland is liked by all the good citizens as a teacher.

Misses Nora, Mabel and Olive Underwood attended the eighth grade examination at Huntersville last Thursday.

The Four-H Club members are very much interested in their work. Some of the girls are somewhat discouraged owing to the fact that some of their Four-H work was misplaced or stolen from the exhibit hall at the Pocahontas County Fair last summer. The writer is of the opinion that the party that took these goods from the exhibit hall would not have done so had they known that part of the goods belonged to the club.
